

WANTED:

Dave Lewis-Lead Vocals/Guitar

Alias: SuperDave

The Pride of Port Barre, Louisiana, this original red rocker is the quintessential outlaw front man. From the days of big hair bands and through the changing times of the nineties, two decades later Dave finds himself still loving the feeling of playing live. Dave brings a unique vocal quality laced with heartfelt deep tones and belt-driven soaring dynamics.

Dave lives to see a crowd digging the show and loves taking the party to the people via wireless mic. Prior to joining Shotgun Lillie, Dave was most recently the lead vocalist of One Trick Pony. His talent and presence helped that group earn a finalist nomination in the Times of Acadiana's "Best Of" poll as one of the area's top rock band three years in a row. His influences include Journey, Led Zeppelin, Fuel, Cheap Trick and Zebra.

Dave lives with his wife Terri in Opelousas.

WANTED:

Chris Hebert-Bass Guitar/Backing Vocals

Alias: Professor

Born and raised on the Northside of Lafayette, Louisiana, bassist Chris Hebert grew up listening to many different styles of music and drawing inspiration from each. On any given day, the sounds of The Doors, Percy Sledge, B.B. King, Johnny Cash, Stevie Ray Vaughan and Hank Williams could be heard in the Hebert home. Inspired by his uncle, Blaine Bearb (Spank the Monkey, Lost & Found, Easy Street, Stevie B.), Chris began strumming the guitar at 12 and quickly picked up a bass. He and Shotgun Lillie lead guitarist Brandon Letulier have been friends since their middle school days and started playing music together in high school.

Brandon and Chris are two of the founding members of Shotgun Lillie, starting the group in 2013. Playing bass with Shotgun Lillie band has given Chris the opportunity to truly immerse himself in playing music so near and dear to his heart and soul.

When not holding down the low end for Shotgun Lillie, Chris enjoys reading, travelling and studio session work.

Chris lives in Lafayette, LA with his wife, Rachel and retired racing greyhounds, Brett and Ellie.

WANTED:

Jeff Kern-Drums/Percussion

Alias: The Adrenaline Rush

Originally from Shreveport and growing up in New Iberia, Jeff Kern is one of the wily veterans of the local music scene.

Drumming since he was 10, Jeff has been behind the kit for a long, long time. Jeff has held the beat down for bands like Eight Easy Pieces, The Classics, Lights Out, LA Speed. In addition to his duties with Shotgun Lillie, Jeff also plays in both Broken Meauxjo and 3am. Over the years, Kern has shared the stage with Fats Domino, Doug Kershaw, The Gap Band, and Midnight Starr.

Jeff draws his musical inspiration from the classic rock sounds he grew up with as well as from the adrenaline rush he feels when his audience is really enjoying the music he is creating.

Jeff has four children, six grandchildren and three dogs. He and his wife, Janet, reside in Youngsville.

WANTED:

Brandon Letulier

Alias: GrandMasterB

Attorney by day, lead guitarist by night, Brandon's broad musical interests range from 50's and 60's Rock and Motown, to classic, 80s and 90s Pop, Rock, Hip Hop and New Wave, to Modern Indie and Electronica.

Originally from the Northside of Lafayette, LA, Brandon has been playing guitar since the age of 13.

This founding member of Shotgun Lillie comes loaded with an arsenal of guitars and tube amps-so there's no riff this guy can't rock. Brandon says, to him, playing live is "something magical". He describes the feeling by explaining, "Every time I look into the crowd and get to see the look of joy on someone's face, I'm reminded of how much I love that we can all connect through music."

Brandon lives in Lafayette wife his wife Beth and two kids.
